DEFENSES

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(c), and without assuming any burden that it would not otherwise bear, and reserving its right to assert additional defenses, Loving Pets asserts the following defenses to Plaintiff's Second Amended Complaint:

FIRST DEFENSE (Failure to State a Claim)

A. Plaintiff's Second Amended Complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted against Loving Pets because Our Pet's has not alleged that Loving Pets had knowledge of the '529 patent prior to the filing of the original Complaint.

SECOND DEFENSE (Non-infringement)

B. Loving Pets has not infringed and does not infringe the '529 Patent, either directly or indirectly, by inducement or contributorily, or literally or under the doctrine of equivalents because the accused Ruff 'N Tuff product of Loving Pets does not include one or more elements, or their equivalents, of each claim of the '529 patent.

THIRD DEFENSE (Invalidity)

C. On information and belief, the '529 Patent is invalid for failure to satisfy the conditions of patentability as specified under one or more sections of Title 35 of the United States Code, including, without limitation, 35 U.S.C. §§ 101, 102, 103, or 112 (pre-AIA) because the claims of the '529 patent are anticipated by and/or obvious over the prior art; are indefinite as failing to inform, with reasonable certainty, those skilled in the art about the scope of the claimed invention; and are invalid as the '529 patent fails to correctly name the true inventors.

FOURTH DEFENSE
(Prosecution History Estoppel)

D. Plaintiff is estopped by reason of prosecution history estoppel from asserting infringement of the '529 Patent under the doctrine of equivalents based on claim amendments made during prosecution, and under the doctrine of ensnarement.

FIFTH DEFENSE
(Adequate Remedy at Law)

E. Plaintiff is not entitled to injunctive relief because any alleged injury to the Plaintiff is not immediate and irreparable, and Plaintiff has an adequate remedy at law.

SIXTH DEFENSE
(Limitations on Damages)

F. Plaintiff's claims for damages, if any, against Loving Pets are statutorily limited by 35 U.S.C. § 287.

SEVENTH DEFENSE
(Costs Barred)

G. Plaintiff is barred from recovering costs in connection with this action under 35 U.S.C. § 288.

EIGHTH DEFENSE
(No Exceptional Case)

H. Plaintiff cannot prove that this is an exceptional case justifying an award of attorneys' fees against Loving Pets pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 285.

NINTH DEFENSE
(Venue)

I. In the interest of justice, and for the convenience of the parties and the witnesses, venue is more appropriate in one or more other districts where this action may have been brought.

TENTH DEFENSE
(Laches, Waiver, Estoppel)

J. The claims against Loving Pets are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrines of laches, waiver, and/or estoppel.

ELEVENTH DEFENSE (Patent Misuse)

K. The '529 patent is unenforceable on the basis of patent misuse because Plaintiff's infringement allegations are frivolous.

TWELFTH DEFENSE
(Lack of Standing)

L. Plaintiff lacks standing to sue for infringement of the '529 patent because Siddharth Modi, a co-owner of the '529 patent, is not a party to the present action.

M. Loving Pets reserves any and all rights to amend its Answer and Defenses to Plaintiff's Second Amended Complaint and to add additional defenses as they become apparent.

The claims of the '529 patent are anticipated by and/or obvious over the prior art; are indefinite as failing to inform, with reasonable certainty, those skilled in the art about the scope of the claimed invention; and are invalid as the '529 patent fails to correctly name the true inventors.

15. Loving Pets is entitled to a judicial declaration and order that all the claims of the '529 Patent are invalid.
